CIRCULAR LETTER.

READING THE SCRIPTURES.

Through the precepts I get understanding. Too much importance cannot be attached to the study of God's word. The negligence and indifference of many professing Christians is a cause of deep solicitude and is truly to be lamented. The Bible is to be a lamp to our feet, and a light to our faith; nor can we travel safely through life and never consult its sacred pages. God's people are to do all things whatsoever He has commanded them; yet they can never discharge their high trusts without understanding them; as well could we expect our children to obey us in all things, and never hear our commands, never know their obligations. As reasonable to find the intelligent student who does not read, as the wise Christian who never searched the Scriptures. Let us notice how we should read:

1. The Bible should be read regularly. A few passages occasionally is not sufficient. To read some verses on the sabbath because we have not enjoyed the privileges of the sanctuary will not satisfy. The Bible should be read every day. When we begin the duties of a new day, let us read some portion of God's word for our guidance through that day. When we close its labors read again, that our best thoughts may be directed to our future and eternal home; nor should we run hurriedly over a few verses, but read whole chapters and the chapters that pertain to the same subject. Sometimes it is actually necessary to read many chapters to clearly understand the rich and glorious truths to which special attention is directed.

2. Read with a spirit of earnest investigation; read to understand and know what is truth. While many things in the Scriptures are difficult to be interpreted, yet those who read seriously should reflect. When you reflect read again and so continue to study and read, and you will find that which seemed so very difficult become very plain and distinct. Here let us note that the plan adopted in the Uniform Lesson series for the study of God's word is quite commendable. The idea of analyzing and comparing different passages, that the true meaning may be clearly comprehended, is most valuable indeed. We cannot hope to understand the Scriptures unless we earnestly investigate their truths.

3. Read with a spirit of humble prayer. If holy men of God speak as they are moved by the Holy Ghost, how can we understand the inspired truth without the assistance of the Spirit? If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask it of God who giveth to all men liberally and upbraideth not. Would we comprehend God's word, let us ask him to enlighten us. Did Jesus promise that the Comforter should come to teach all things and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you? Then let us pray that the truth may be made plain, that it may be received in our hearts, that it may be obeyed. Thus it may be said of us, "Ye shall know me and the truth shall make thee free."

Why we should read the Scriptures:

1. That we may be wiser. Many useful books are scattered over the world, containing rich treasures of knowledge, and all who would be wise must peruse their pages. But the Bible is the book of books; it is an emanation from God; it is the repository of divine knowledge, and all who consult its sacred pages come to the fountain of all knowledge. Are we in darkness? it gives light. Are we ignorant? it gives wisdom. Are we in trouble and suspense? it gives peace and comfort. Would we know the mind of God, let us search the Scriptures, for they are they, said the Savior, which testify to me.

2. That we may be good. Those are the best persons who are most like Jesus. Those are most like Christ who follow his example, is plainly set forth in His word. Would we know what is best to be done? see what the divine example would have been. Is it our desire to shun the appearance of evil? then learn from the record what our Savior did. Let us remember that we cannot live the divine life without knowing what that life is.

3. That we may be useful. What converted heart does not yearn to work for Jesus? It is the prompting of the new born soul to do something for Jesus. Yet many do very little, if anything, for the good of men and the advancement of the Redeemer's cause.

Many are weak and many are lukewarm; many are idle in the vineyard of the Lord. Why is it so? Ignorance of God's word. If the disciples of Christ lived each day mindful of the high and holy commands of God and the divine precepts of the Gospel, none would be, none could be, idle. Did men but obey the Bible as a divine revelation, they would then habitually and uniformly do justice, speak truth, show mercy, exercise mutual forgiveness, follow after peace, bridle their appetites and passions, and lead sober, righteous and godly lives. Murders, wars, cruel oppressions, rapine, fraud and unrestrained licentiousness, would no more desolate the world or fill it with misery and bitter contentions; would no more destroy domestic comfort, but righteousness, goodness and truth would bless the earth with a felicity exceeding all our present conceptions. Let us then familiarize ourselves with the teachings of God's word if we would live to the praise and glory of Him who hath loved us and given himself for us.

ELDER C. B. BARTLEY.

CONSTITUTION OF THE FLORIDA PRIMITIVE ORTHODOX ZION BAPTIST ASSOCIATION.

We, the churches of Jesus Christ, being regularly baptized on a profession of our faith in Christ, are convinced of the necessity of a combination of churches in order to maintain a union and communion among us, and keep up a correspondence with each other, and trust that we may be helpers in building up our Zion in the destitute portions of our wide-spread country. In belief of this, we, regular Baptists of Florida holding, the declaration of faith as delivered by the Saints, agree to form ourselves into an Association, having in view the following objects:

I. The establishment and union of our churches upon Christian principles, embracing organization, church government, and good discipline.

II. To encourage among our brethren, by all Christian means, education, industry, self-reliance, general improvement, and especially spiritual elevation.

III. To do what we can in compliance with the commission of our blessed Redeemer, to spread the Gospel throughout the world.

IV. To secure these ends, we pledge ourselves to God and to each other to sustain, by our prayers, our efforts, and our means, as God shall enable us, the principles embodied in this Constitution.

ARTICLE I.

SECTION 1. This body shall be called the Primitive Orthodox Zion Baptist Association of Florida.

SEC. 2. Any church wishing to unite with this Association must be a regularly organized body.

SEC. 3. Application by a church for admission into this body must be made through one or more delegates, with proper credentials; and before admission such church ought to agree to the rules embodied in this Constitution.

SEC. 4. The stability and prosperity of the churches mainly depend upon the strict observance of the teachings of the Holy Scriptures, which are given by inspiration of God, and are profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness, that the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works, and that, in consequence, loyalty to our Divine Master demands of us that we discontinue all customs and traditions which are not warranted by the Word of God.

SEC. 5. As a body of Christians we will encourage every effort that is in our power to improve our ministry, and would recommend a careful observance of the Scriptural rule, "Lay hands on no man suddenly;" and that no brother be granted the privilege to take the oversight of a church who has not the proper qualifications, and is not willing to prepare himself therefor by diligent and prayerful study, lest as a novice, being lifted up with pride, he fall into the condemnation of the devil. We recommend, especially to all our young ministers, the advice given by an inspired apostle to a younger brother in the ministry: "Give attendance to reading, to exhortation, to doctrine, that your profiting may be beneficial to all whenever you have a call."

SEC. 6. In view of the many impositions practiced upon the churches by irresponsible men calling themselves ministers of the Gospel, through covetousness, with feigned words, making merchandise of their brethren, deceiving them for gain, we would recommend and urge that no minister be permitted to preach in any of the churches connected with this body unless he brings proof of being duly authorized to preach, from the church of which he is a member; and further, that the churches have a very particular care to give written credentials, duly signed, to such of their members as they may license to go out and preach the gospel.

SEC. 7. We believe that when a brother feels that he is called to the full work of the ministry by ordination, that he should have some special work in view; as, first, at the call of a particular church, to become its pastor; or, second, to labor as a missionary within certain bounds, under the direction of a church or Association; or, third, to go at large as an evangelist, preaching the Word, as the providence of God by the Spirit may direct him.

SEC. 8. Any church wishing to unite with this Association we hope will come properly recommended to this body, and is expected to send, by its delegates, a record of its organization and of its constituted members as also of its present number, the number received during the year by letter or baptism, the number dismissed, excluded or deceased; also the number of ordained ministers or licentiates; and this record is to be given in every year by each church in this body.

SEC. 9. This Association shall be known as the Florida Primitive Orthodox Zion Baptist Association.

SEC. 10. We pray that God will help us in our undertaking, and save us in His Kingdom.

AMENDMENT.

The basis of representation in this Association shall be two delegates for each church organization within the bounds of this State; and we further ordain and declare, as a body of Christians, followers of the blessed Jesus, the Redeemer of sinful men, that color shall never form a bar to membership in this Association, and that the fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man are the two great truths in the Gospel of the Son of God that take precedence of all other truths in the Bible.

RULES FOR GOVERNING THE ASSOCIATION.

ARTICLE 1. The meeting of this Association shall be opened and closed with prayer.

ART. 2. The letters of the churches shall be read, and the names of the delegates enrolled.

ART. 3. The Moderator and Clerk shall be elected.

ART. 4. No person shall be allowed to speak more than twice on the same question without special permission from the Moderator.

ART. 5. Every person who speaks shall rise from his seat and address the Moderator.

ART. 6. All whispering during the session shall be considered disorderly.

ART. 7. No member shall leave the house without permission of the Moderator.

ART. 8. Ministers and messengers from sister Associations shall be invited to assist in the deliberations of this body.

ART. 9. In all cases due regard shall be exercised for the feelings of other members.

ARTICLES OF FAITH ON THE BAPTIST ORDER.

- I. We believe in one only true and living God, and that there are three persons in the Godhead—the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost.
- II. We believe that the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments are the Word of God, and the only rule of faith and practice.
- III. We believe in the doctrine of eternal election.
- IV. We believe in the doctrine of original sin.
- V. We believe in man's impotency to recover himself from the fallen state in which he is by nature, by his own free will and ability.
- VI. We believe that sinners are justified in the sight of God only by the imparted righteousness of Christ.
- VII. We believe that God's elect shall be called, regenerated and sanctified by the Holy Ghost.
- VIII. We believe that the Saints shall persevere in grace and never finally fall away.
- IX. We believe that baptism and the Lord's Supper are ordinances of Jesus Christ; that nothing is baptism except immersion; that believers are the only subjects of this ordinance, and that none but baptized believers are entitled to partake of the Lord's Supper.
- X. We believe in the resurrection of the dead and a general judgment.
- XI. We believe that the punishment of the wicked will be everlasting, and the joy of the righteous will be eternal.
- XII. We believe that no ministers have a right to administer the ordinances, only such as are regularly called and have come under the imposition of the hands of the Presbytery, which will be three regularly ordained Baptist Ministers of the Gospel.
- XIII. We believe that a visible Church of Christ is a congregation of baptized believers, associated by Covenant in the faith and fellowship of the Gospel; observing the ordinances of Christ; governed by His laws; exercising the gifts, rights, and privileges invested in them by His Word; that its only Scriptural officers are pastors and deacons, whose qualifications, claims and duties are defined in the Epistle to Timothy and Titus.

THE PORTION OF SCRIPTURE RELATING TO FEET-WASHING.

ST. JOHN: CHAPTER XIII. Jesus knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he was come from God and went to God;

4. He riseth from supper and laid aside his garments, and took a towel and girded himself.

5. After that he poureth water into a basin and began to wash his disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel wherewith he was girded.

6. Then cometh he to Simon Peter; and Peter saith unto him, Lord, dost thou wash my feet?

7. Jesus answered and said unto him: what I do thou knowest not now; but thou shalt know hereafter.

8. Peter saith unto him, thou shalt never wash my feet. Jesus answered him, if I wash thee not, thou has no part with me.

9. Simon Peter saith unto him, Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head.

10. Jesus saith unto him, he that is washed needeth not save to wash his feet, but is clean every whit; and ye are clean, but not all
